Introduction

The Monroe County Assigned Counsel Program marked its twenty-sixth year of operation in all courts within Monroe County. It was also the fifteenth year of operation for the Conflict Defender Office.

The attorneys of the Monroe County Conflict Defender Office represent indigent clients in Family Court, Rochester City Court and appeals where there is a conflict of interest preventing the individual from being represented by the Monroe County Public Defender Office. The Conflict Defender Office, when fully staffed, is made up of nineteen staff members. The Office's thirteen attorneys include the Conflict Defender, seven Family Court attorneys, three attorneys handling misdemeanor cases in Rochester City Court and two appellate attorneys. The Office, when fully staffed, also has five full-time support staff and one part-time position. Three support staff positions and three Family Court attorney positions continue to be filled pursuant to grants from the Office of Indigent Legal Services of New York State (OILS). Outside support services such as investigators and process servers continue to be done on a contract basis.

In 2020, the Conflict Defender Office experienced some staff turn-over, but by the end of the year the Office had a full-compliment of attorneys. A vacant Family Court attorney position was filled in February. An appellate attorney retired mid-year and was replaced with a transfer from the Family Court section. This created a vacancy in the Family Court section which was filled in November. There were no staff changes in the Conflict Defender Office City Court section. In April, our support staff had two vacancies. By June, one position had been filled. In December, the process had begun to fill our last open support staff position, but the position was still vacant at the end of the year. The Conflict Defender Office staff provided quality representation in 342 criminal cases, 1253 Family Court cases, 17 new appellate cases, and processed approximately 6500 assignments in 2020.

Under the joint Monroe County/Monroe County Bar Association Plan for Conflict Assignments, assigned counsel panel attorneys, attorneys in private practice willing to represent indigent clients, accepted assignments in all town and village courts, all felony cases, Family Court cases, all statutorily assigned cases in Superior Court as well as all cases where the Conflict Defender Office has a conflict of interest. As of the end of the year, there were 160 private attorneys who accepted assignments, and they handled approximately 5,255 assignments in 2020.

This report outlines, with statistical information, the Program's success in meeting the goals of the Plan which are articulated here:

"The objectives of this conflict assignments plan are to provide quality representation to eligible indigent defendants or other litigants in those cases where the Public Defender has a conflict of interest; to provide a coordinated and centralized assignment system for conflict cases arising in the courts specified in Article IV herein; to provide a more equitable distribution of conflict assignments among lawyers; to attract more lawyers willing to handle conflict assignments; to maintain uniform and proper billing practices; to ensure cost accountability of services, and to provide increased efficiency for the courts by making qualified attorneys more readily available to handle conflict cases."

Monroe County Bar Association Sponsored Plan for Conflict Assignments, ARTICLE II. Plan Objectives

"To Provide Quality Representation"

In 20XX, the total number of case referrals (see page 8) showed a significant jump from the previous two years. In 20XX and 20XX, the total number of cases was steady at approximately XXXXX, while in 20XX that number increased to over XXXX. The largest increases were in misdemeanors (an approximate XXX case increase) and Family Court cases (approximately a XX case increase). In fact, 20XX marked the first time that the number of Family Court cases topped XXXX. There was also a sharp increase in felony numbers, with an increase of approximately XXX cases over last year. On the other hand, there was a sharp decline in probation and parole violations, and cases designated as "other", such as representation of witnesses. This "other" category was back to the same level as 20XX, after a large spike up to XXX assignments in 20XX.

With respect to appellate cases, there was an increase in the number of cases from XX in 20XX to XXX in 20XX, a significant increase. The number of appeals rose this year, and it is expected that the number of appeals will rise substantially over the next few years due to the increased number of trials that occurred in 20XX as a result of the Chief Judge's "excellence initiative." A number of the appeals initially assigned to the Conflict Defender Office needed to be re-assigned to ACP attorneys due to concerns regarding potential habeas corpus relief. This was done on a small scale in 20XX and 20XX, and continued and expanded in 20XX. These assignments were primarily paid for by an OILS grant.

All Assigned Counsel panel attorneys have qualified for their respective panels under the enhanced requirements for panel membership that were implemented in 2014 by then-Conflict Defender Charles Noce, Esq. These panel requirements remain in effect in an ongoing effort to continue to maintain and enhance the quality of representation that indigent clients in Monroe County receive.

With respect to the Conflict Defender Office, the attorneys handling appeals and misdemeanor cases in Rochester City Court were able to maintain a high level of representation for their clients, as did the staff attorneys assigned to Monroe County Family Court (including the three OILS grant funded positions).

As the Continuing Legal Education (CLE) requirements of all staff attorneys of the Conflict Defender Office and panel attorneys for the Assigned Counsel Program overlap with the Mandatory Continuing Legal Education requirements of the State of New York, compliance is 100%.

However, it is a goal of the Conflict Defender Office, in conjunction with the appropriate committees of the Monroe County Bar Association, to create more opportunities for training of attorneys. This is of a particularly necessity in Family Court.

"To Provide a Coordinated and Centralized Assignment System for Conflict Cases"

The Assigned Counsel Program is fully computerized, and has been through a number of electronic transformations. The initial computer program (2003-2010) entered all cases reported in it to a centralized database that tracked the representation from assignment through payment of the voucher for all cases; both Assigned Counsel and Conflict Defender cases. At the end of calendar year 2011, a new database was purchased for use by the office, and the underlying support system needed for the use of the prior ACP Database was discontinued. This system was in operation from approximately 2011-until August 2016. In August 2016, a new electronic voucher system and overall conflict case assignment database became operational. This current integrated system has resulted in a savings on time and effort, as well as an improvement on efficiency.

Assignments referred by the courts continue to be assigned from a rotating list of qualified attorneys who meet the requirements to be on the varying panels. The program, when used by the Courts, is very successful in ensuring continuity of counsel where a client is re-arrested on new charges, even when the arrests span differing jurisdictions. Additionally, the program continues to track conflict of interest information so that panel attorneys are not unnecessarily assigned when the Conflict Defender Office could ethically continue.

"To Provide a More Equitable Distribution of Conflict Assignments Among Lawyers"

The Assigned Counsel Program continually strives to improve its system of assignment of conflict cases. The Program constantly attempts to implement new and better systems to distribute assignments more equitably among the participating attorneys. In criminal cases, the current system is highly effective when fully utilized by the Courts of Monroe County. There are, however, still several local criminal courts that do not utilize, or only partially utilize, the services of the program in the assignment of counsel. This sometimes leads to a client having multiple attorneys for different pending charges, which can result in uncoordinated representation, as well as increased and unnecessary costs to the taxpayer.

As Courts often need attorneys very quickly, those available when called get a disproportionate number of assignments. Thus, the assignment distribution can be skewed toward those attorneys who were most available for assignments. It should be noted that attorneys may notify the Conflict Office of their availability on certain dates and at certain times (particularly around holidays and long weekends) so we may contact them when an assignment opportunity occurs on that date and time. Notice can be emailed, telephoned or faxed to our office.

In Family Court, the equitable distribution of cases remains an issue in cases not represented by the Conflict Defender staff. The majority of assignments to panel attorneys in Family Court are still made directly from the bench. It remains a goal of the Conflict Defender Office to address the inequities in Family Court assignments. The fact that a few attorneys receive the bulk of the assignments places an undue burden on those attorneys and can impact directly on the quality of representation.

"To Attract More Lawyers Willing to Handle Conflict Assignments"

Included in this report (see page 7) is a list of new panel members added during the 2020 calendar year.

These attorneys were added to the panels under the requirements for panel membership that were implemented in 2014 by then-Conflict Defender Charles Noce, Esq. These panel requirements were created and remain in effect in an ongoing effort to continue to enhance the quality of representation that indigent clients in Monroe County receive.

Generally, plenty of qualified assigned counsel attorneys remain on all panels and are available to meet requests for assignment of counsel by the courts.

The Conflict Defender has taken steps to recruit qualified attorneys to the assigned counsel panels. With the assistance of the Monroe County Bar Association, the Conflict Defender has made presentations to, among other groups, the Solo/Small Firm Committee, Senior Committee, and the large-firm managing partners seeking attorneys to join the panels.

"To Maintain Uniform and Proper Billing Practices and to Ensure Cost Accountability of Services"

As was the case in previous years, the Conflict Defender reviews each voucher to ensure compliance with the voucher regulations and notifies each attorney of any noncompliance to educate the attorney on proper procedures. The review and notification help maintain proper and uniform billing practices among the participating attorneys.

Having received a Grant from the New York State Office of Indigent Legal Services to fund the purchase of an electronic vouchering system, the system became operational in August 2016. The use of the electronic voucher system has significantly increased the efficiency and accuracy of reviewing vouchers.

"To Provide Increased Efficiency for the Courts"

The Courts that fully utilize the services of the Assigned Counsel Program report a positive impact on the efficiency in obtaining assigned counsel in conflict cases. These Courts report a significant decrease in the burden on the court staff in finding attorneys willing to accept assignments and a prompt response from the Assigned Counsel Program in obtaining assigned counsel.

The electronic voucher system has increased the efficiency in voucher processing. Panel attorneys can access the system from any computer with a login username and password. This system requires timely filing of vouchers by assigned counsel. The system allows for ease of review by the Conflict Defender. Furthermore, as the vouchers can be transmitted between the Conflict Defender Office and the Courts electronically instead of through the mail, it cuts down on total processing time. Additionally, the system allows for County payment with minimal paperwork.

The efficiency of the Courts has clearly been facilitated by the dedicated attorneys serving on the assigned counsel panels, and the staff attorneys in the Office of the Conflict Defender, while ensuring high quality representation in Family Court, all of the criminal and appellate courts in 2020.

2020 Assignments

The following charts show the assignments each attorney received in 2020. The number of assignments is higher than the number of cases referred because in some cases more than one attorney receives an assignment for a case. Also, an attorney might be assigned in 2020 to a case originally referred in a previous year. This occurs most often after a court relieves one attorney and either the court or the Assigned Counsel Program assigns a new attorney.

Several factors should be considered in looking at these tables. First, approved panel members receive more assignments than non-approved panel members do. Some of the attorneys with a low number of assignments are non-approved panel members. Most often, such an attorney is court assigned. Secondly, those attorneys gaining membership on a panel for the first time during 2020 will have fewer assignments in that panel because they were not on the panel for an entire year. Thirdly, a number of attorneys decline a significant number of assignments, requested removal from the Program for periods of time or resigned from the Program during 2020. While the report includes non-approved attorneys, new panel members, attorneys declining appointments, and attorneys temporarily removed from panels at their own request, concentrating on those members who participated for the full year as approved members of a particular panel gives a truer picture of the equitable distribution of assignments.

Of particular significance in this report is the fact that in the criminal courts, where the Assigned Counsel Program assigns a large percentage of cases, there is a more even distribution of assignments. This is attributable to the fact that, by comparison, Family Court has a much lower percentage of cases assigned by the Assigned Counsel Program: most assignments are directed by the court. Attaining more equitable distribution of cases is difficult, if not impossible. The Administrator and Advisory Committee must work diligently to provide a workable solution to the inequities of the Family Court assignments. Looking at the last column of the tables, it takes significantly fewer attorneys for the Family Court assignments to reach a high percentage than it does for the criminal court assignments. This is less of a concern since the Conflict Defender Office represents the bulk of the conflict cases in Family Court. Nonetheless, it is an issue that should be addressed for those cases where the Conflict Defender Office cannot represent the client in Family Court.

- Note: In 2020 a number of cases were assigned to ACP attorneys due to a conflict of interest with The Conflict Defender Office, as well as due to the fact that many cases were so old even at the time of initial assignment that they needed to be assigned out pursuant to an OILS grant to handle the backlog of appeals.

2020 Table of Program Use by Judiciary³

The table below shows the number of assignments for each Judge making at least one assignment during 2020. The statistics, between this chart and the attorney assignments, clearly show that Rochester City Court, which assigns the greatest number of cases in the County, is very high in percentage of cases assigned through the Assigned Counsel Program. These facts directly correlate to the fact that the distribution of cases among the attorneys is greatest for criminal cases. Conversely, the statistics show that Family Court has a much lower percentage of cases assigned through the Assigned Counsel Program when removing those cases assigned to the Conflict Defender Office. There has been some progress in Family Court toward the increased use of the Assigned Counsel Program.

³ The assignment numbers are higher here because unlike reporting of attorney assignments where only new assignments are reported, all assignments made by the Judges are counted here. These numbers include those cases handled by the Office of the Conflict Defender.
